Oh man. Tonight will be even more exciting. We are deploying the new firewall in mitc which is requiring changes to all the other datacenter's firewalls too. Hold onto your hat.

Given the reaction firefox had to the cert revoke. I doubt anyone could log in from sometime between 5pm and 1:30 AM. So, "readonly" was the effect most of the evening.

Btw, have you noticed all the pdf/abuse emails? I'm seeing a much higher pdf download rate.
